

Video of Illusionist – Chris Philpott Turning on the Christmas Lights in Newport, I.W.

Saturday, 29th November 2014

This year Illusionist - Chris Philpott (CEO of Chris Illusions Magical Theatre Co.) turned on the Christmas Lights in St. James' Square, Newport with his LED illusion. Assisted by one of his aptly named assistance 'the Babes of Magic', Ann Abe.

With over a decade of experience working in the world of entertainment, Chris has performed for a host of Corporate & Private Engagements, from across the UK to Canada and even at the world famous London Palladium to name a few. He has given performances in the company of a range of well known faces including the late Actor Geoffrey Hughes and TV's former 'Catchphrase' host Roy Walker. Most recently in June 2014, Chris was requested to perform by HRH Princess Beatrice of York at Osborne House.

With his brand new touring show planned to tour the South of England in the autumn of 2015, his exciting take on contemporary magic will be enjoyed by young and old alike in his new show: "The Ultimate Illusion Extravaganza".
